The amazing story of Idaho, a racking horse mare, began unfolding after her theft in 1997 and recovery fifty-one weeks later. But no one, including her owners Debi and Harold Metcalfe, would have ever guessed the impact that she would have on their lives. One day, the Metcalfes were the typical American family with two children and a few pleasure horses. The next, they became caught up on a journey that led to places they never imagined being. The horse they once admired became an icon they would never again underestimate. The Metcalfes have learned the power of one horse.

Clinician at numerous horse expos and featured recently on FOX TV'S America's Most Wanted show, Metcalfe will teach you more than you ever thought possible about HORSE THEFT in the 21st century. She has been on RFDTV on HorseCity.com's In the Barn series, Best of America by Horseback, radio shows, Equus, Horse and Rider, Practical Horseman, and many other horse magazines. Author of Horse Theft. Been There—Done That, DEBI METCALFE promises you will be glad you came.
